TOUR OBJECTIVES

Northwestern College is offering a Student Theatre Tour to the British Isles and Scandinavia during the summer of 1971. The tour offers the opportunity to study the evolution of dramatic art in these countries from the Middle Ages to the present. There will be a number of pertinent theatre visits, seminars, visits to museums and other places related to the history of the theater or to dramatic literature. There will also be time for leisure and independent research.

#

ELIGIBILITY FOR TOUR

Membership in the tour is open to any interested person.

#

SEMINAR FOR CREDIT

Members of the Study Tour may enroll in the course Speech 300; Foreign Study in Speech and Theatre. Participants may obtain six semester hours credit by regular attendance in scheduled seminars en route. At the end of the Study Tour, a research paper will be required on an approved topic. Tuition fee is $175. Application should be in by May 1, 1971. For eligibility and requirements, contact the Registrar's Office, Northwestern College, Orange City, Iowa, 51041.
