Orange City, Iowa

Dear Mrs. England:

On behalf of the Session of this Church and myself I would like to express our appreciation for the wonderful job which you and The Northwestern Choral Readers did in our Worship yesterday. The people of this congregation have spoken very highly of your work and the work of the young people under your direction. You and your group are to be complimented for your achievement.

The message which they presented as well as its presentation clearly shows how much you have practiced and how sincere you are. Such a thing as this is a pleasant breath of fresh air and should be acceptable in any Church where God is present and is speaking to His people. Our thanks and best wishes to all of you.

Sincerely,

Harold J. Preston, Jr.
