

Northwestern College, Iowa

NWCommons

---

Frank LeCocq, Sr.

Box 1: Papers

---

10-24-1872

Newspaper announcement, October 24, 1872

Sioux County Herald

Follow this and additional works at: <https://nwcommons.nwciowa.edu/franklecocqsr>

---

From The Sioux County Herald, October 24, 1872, Orange City, Iowa.*

Because of the change in the business affairs of Mr. Henry Hospers brought on by the sale of his well-attended and prosperous store, all those who have charge accounts and who have borrowed money from Mr. Hospers, are kindly urged to come to his office and settle up their accounts, by the 12 th. of November. For those who are under obligation to Mr. Hospers for loans tendered them, he is always ready to be of assistance in making new arrangements.

From this day until November the 12 th. the undersigned may be found in the office of Mr. Hospers to act as the receiver of cash moneys, or to make new contracts.

F. Le Cocq

* (Translated from the Dutch by Nelson Nieuwenhuis, Curator of the Dutch Heritage Collections).