Jhr. Mr. B. de Jonge,
Advocaat en Procureur,
Zutphen, Netherlands.

My Dear Sir:-

Your kind favor of July 23rd. enclosing copy of verdict in case of the inheritance of Pieter Teyler van der Hulst, was duly received this morning, and I thank you most kindly.

I have read the document as best I could, although some of the language is a little difficult for me. I also note what you say in your letter, and we will, of course, abide by your kind advice and drop the matter. We are satisfied now that everything has been done that could be done in the matter, and it would seem useless in the light of the verdict just rendered to make any further efforts.

I further note that you do not desire to make any charge for your services. While I deeply appreciate your courtesy in this matter, yet I would be only too pleased should you retain the balance for your services.

Thanking you, and with my kindest regards, I am,

Yours truly,

RBLC-NS
