Dear "N.E.,"

While planning this letter to you, I was reminded of many instances where your influence has had a great deal of influence on my life.

Because of you, college was very enjoyable. I don't think the Choral Reading trip to Buck Hill Falls New York a really great time?

The fact that I enjoyed college because of you is important but more important than that is the carryover. As an elementary teacher, I have used drama in many teaching situations. I have appreciated my training anytime I've been asked to do a program for an organization.

Being a "ham at heart", I've been actually involved in several community theatre productions both in Hinton and Le Mars. This summer I'll take another step, in planning to Direct a children's theatre workshop and the production "The Clown Who Ran Away" by O. Seiler.

Mrs E., I can't imagine my life without the theater. Thank you for the hours you have spent with me in training and developing an appreciation for good theater.

Sincerely,
Audrey Harner Schotten
