Dear folks —

I know I am way behind in writing but we have been quite busy. At present we are living in a tent again. The other night a wind storm and rain came up — we lost our tent and every one had got soaked. That was a miserable night.

Well the main reason for this letter was to tell you that you needn't write me any more letters up here. Yep, I'm coming home. Should get home sometime latter part of month. Hope this finds you all well

Love
Ralph
