25 years of Service

COUNCIL CHAMBER

LYNDEN, WASH.

Mr. R. B. LeCocq

Dear sir;

The Council has received your resignation with sincere regret. They deeply appreciate your services to our little town for almost a quarter of a century. Your record over so long a period as Clerk and Attorney for the municipality is one you have a right to be proud of and one for which we wish to congratulate you.

We believe our town has been exceptionally well managed during the time you have been associated as one of its directing officers and we believe you are entitled to a very considerable share of the credit for such management and direction and so we wish to express again our sincere thanks and appreciation for your services and assure you of our best wishes for your happiness, prosperity and success.
